

Lloyd Banks Jr. Biography

Lloyd Banks Jr. is the current County Supervisor representing the citizens of District 2. He was born in Newport News and is a lifelong resident of Virginia. Lloyd pursued his higher education at Norfolk State University and graduated with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Management Information Systems. He was then commissioned as an officer in the United States Coast Guard where he specialized in budgeting, contracting, and procurement.

Lloyd has also earned a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Old Dominion University and a Master's Degree in Theology from Landmark Theological Seminary.

Lloyd has extensive finance and accounting experience and is currently employed by the University of Virginia where he manages Graduate Financial Aid within the College of Arts and Sciences. Lloyd's executive level experience includes his appointment to the Board of Visitors at Norfolk State University by Governor Bob McDonnell. Lloyd formerly served as pastor at the Calvary Baptist Church in Fredericksburg, Virginia, and currently serves as pastor at the Central Plains Church in Fluvanna.

Lloyd and his wife Tracy enjoy rural life on their horse farm in Cumberland County and have eleven children.